

The 2008 Caregiver of the Year Award

The Prosperity™ Long-Term Care Fund is pleased to announce the launch of the 2008 Caregiver of the Year Award, in order to recognize non-professional caregivers and the personal sacrifices they make to improve the quality of life of the elderly, whether family member or friend.

The Prosperity™ Fund is a new endowment fund, administered by the Community Foundation of Ottawa (www.cfo-fco.ca), which will provide our regional non-profit long-term care homes and other seniors' care organizations with an additional source of funding to improve the quality of care for Ottawa's seniors.

Eligibility criteria for the 2008 Caregiver of the Year Award include, but not limited to, the following:

- Must be a resident of the municipality of Ottawa;
- Must be caring for a senior, i.e., person(s) 65 years of age or more;
- Cannot be paid for the provision of such care; and
- Demonstrated a commitment to providing care and improving the quality of life of a senior. Whether the care recipient resides in an institution or in a private home.

The winner of the 2008 Caregiver of the Year Award will receive:

- Free home care services provided by Retire-at-Home Services for up to 48 hours, customized to your needs;
- 2 nights stay for two at the Fairmont Château Laurier, including complementary parking and breakfast;
- The Ultimate Spa package from Westboro Spa and Hair Studio, with a market value of $250;
- A $300 gift certificate at Carlingwood Mall; and
- Dinner for two at the Foundation Restaurant, with a market value of $150.

Nomination forms and other information can be downloaded from our website www.prosperityfund.ca. Nominations must be submitted by no later than January 21, 2009 to:
