

Choosing our Future is hosting a Sustainability Summit to listen, learn and be inspired by community leaders with ideas about how we can become a more sustainable, resilient and livable community.

Friday, June 11, 2010

8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Jean Pigott Place

Ottawa City Hall, 110 Laurier Avenue West

Keynote speaker for the Summit is John F. Helliwell, co-director of the Social Interactions, Identity and Well-Being program at the Canadian Institute for Advanced Research. Mr. Helliwell's presentation on Sustainability and Well-Being will lead off a series of short 10-minute talks by community leaders active in our social, economic, culture and environment sectors:

Alex Munter – Executive Director, Youth Services Bureau

Hamdi Mohamed - Executive Director, Ottawa Community Immigrant Services (OCISO),

Moe Garahan – Just Foods

Sommer Casgrain-Robertson - Co-Project Manager, Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Region;;

Ottawa Riverkeeper - Waterkeeper Alliance

Jennifer Valberg – The Otesha Project

Brian Burns - Associate Professor - Industrial Design, Carleton University

Chris Henderson – President, Lumos Energy

Rob Barrs – Principal, HB Lanarc

Participants will have the opportunity to discuss these issues and are invited to share their passions, ideas and experiences as the day unfolds. To register visit choosingourfuture.ca, e-mail info@choosingourfuture.ca or call 3-1-1.
