

How to Read and Interpret Financial Statements, January 24, 2012.

Alterna Savings in Collaboration with The Ottawa Chamber of Voluntary Organizations are pleased to invite you to this session where you will gain a more in-depth understanding of the importance of interpreting financial statements. You will also learn how Not For Profit financial reporting differs from that of traditional business.

If you plan to attend you can bring your organization's financial statements and you can decipher the lingo and ratios in the case study part of the session.

Presenter: Paul Sibue, Chartered Accountant with the firm Raymond Chabot Grant Thornton

Time: 1:30 - 4:30 pm

Location: C3 Centre, 1155 Lola Street, Ottawa ON

To register click here.

Paul Sibué, CA, is a Partner in the Ottawa office of Raymond Chabot Grant Thornton LLP, and possesses over twenty years experience providing assurance and advisory services to a wide range of organizations, including many not-for-profit organizations in the National Capital Area. Paul is also the Regional Director of Professional Standards for the Ottawa office. With the rapid evolution of accounting and assurance standards in recent years, he has taken an active role in educating Firm professionals, clients and other stakeholders on accounting matters and financial statement presentation issues.