

“Open doors and launch of a new program at CESOC”

Ottawa-ONTARIO, 04th of DECEMBRE 2008:

As the year 2008 is coming to an end, the time has come for making up and for new starts. It is also the time to get together and reward those who have contributed to make us enjoy life. It's also the time for reunion and recognition acts towards those who helped make our life pleasant.

The Economic and Social Council of Ottawa-Carleton (CESOC) its board of directors, its general director and its staff invite you to participate in its 'open house' on December the 19th 2008, from 10 am to 4pm, in its office located on 2660 Southvale crescent. It will be a networking event and an opportunity to share a meal. It will be the moment to share experiences and mostly to consolidate relations or create new ones.

Also, on that same date, CESOC will officially launch its Registered Education Savings Plan program. The aims of this program sponsored by Human Resources and Social Development Canada is to educate the members of the French speaking communities about the benefits of saving to finance the post secondary studies of their children.

According to the President of the Board of director, Mr. Gérard Manirambona: “Our get together is one of the best ways to thank our partners and volunteers and allow our staff the time to have a special day in a unique atmosphere`. We kindly urge you all to respond to this yearly invitation and to come celebrate together our successes.

The day's schedule will be displayed as of December 8th on the CESOC website:
