

Autism Ontario - Ottawa Chapter
La société franco-ontarienne de l'autisme &
The Autism Spectrum Program - Eastern Ontario

present

Educating Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders: from Theory to Practice

February 18-20, 2009 (9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.)

(February 18, 2009)

ZIGGURAT MODEL

CHEO Autism Spectrum Program School Support Staff

(February 19, 2009)

PRINCETON MODEL

Edward Fenske, M.A.T., Ed.S.,
Executive Director, Princeton Child Development Institute

(February 20, 2009)

CABAS MODEL

Dr. Douglas Greer, Ph.D, SBA, SRS
Professor of Education and Psychology,
Coordinator of the Programs in Applied Behavior Analysis)
Columbia University

This 2009 conference represents a collaborative community response to the need for further information regarding the development and practical application of educational services to children with Autism Spectrum Disorders

We invite parents, professionals, educators and policy makers to join us as we discuss the application of specific ABA models in the classroom.

(over)

Location: Tudor Hall
3750 North Bowesville Road, Ottawa, ON K1V 1B8-(613) 739-4287

Cost: Parents: $20.00 per day ($ 50.00 for 3 days, must register for all 3 days)
Professionals: $30.00 per day ($ 75.00 for 3 days, must register for all 3 days)

Registration Deadline: January 30, 2009
Please register early as seating is limited

Important Conference Details

- Parking is available on site
- Lunch and coffee breaks are provided
- Simultaneous translation will be provided

- To request more information please contact
Melany Gagné
613-745-5963 or
1-877-542-2294