DEFENDER OF THE PUBLIC GOOD AWARD, OTTAWA 2008

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

In 2005 the Social Planning Council of Ottawa established the Defender of the Public Good Award, Ottawa in order to honour the importance of promoting the public good in our society and to celebrate individuals who have demonstrated outstanding commitment and leadership in serving the public good in our community. In November, we will be hosting our 4th Annual Award Dinner at which time 3 individuals will be presented with the Defender of the Public Good Award, Ottawa 2008.

We are asking the public to nominate people from the local level who have worked for the public good by:

- standing firm for social justice among competing visions of the public good
- seeking equal opportunities for everyone to participate in community life
- working to give people more influence over the social, economic, spiritual, government forces affecting their lives
- pursuing collaboration between people from different backgrounds, socio-economic circumstances and ethnic origins.

Nominations must be received by October 15, 2008. Completed nominations should be forwarded to the Social Planning Council of Ottawa office@spcottawa.on.ca or mailed to Social Planning Council of Ottawa, 280 Metcalfe Street, Suite 501 Ottawa K2P 1R7. The Nomination Form is also available at the SPC website at www.spcottawa.on.ca or from SPC at 613 236-9300, ext. 300.

The Awards will be presented at a Dinner on November 12, 2008 at Sala San Marco, 215 Preston Street, Ottawa. For more details, call 613 236-9300 ext. 312
