

The Courage to Soar Program is an education and training opportunity for indigenous women whose life goal is to be economically independent while pursuing a career as an Administrative Assistant. Minwaashin Lodge Indigenous Women's Support Centre is offering such an opportunity for highly motivated and committed candidates interested in such an opportunity.

Apply today!

Spaces are limited!

Courage to Soar
Program Office
Administration Assistant
– Advanced Studies

Jennifer Bellaire,
Project Coordinator at
Tel: 613-741-5590 ext .
262
Fax: 613-748-8311
jbellaire@minlodge.com

Check us out at...
www.minlodge.com

Funded by the Ministry of Status of Women

Register Now for 2018-2019!

Courage to Soar
Employment & Training Program

Minwaashin Lodge
Indigenous Women's Support
Centre

100-1155 Lola St
Ottawa, ON

- Are you a First Nation, Inuit or Métis Women?
- Over 18 years of age?
- At risk of or ever experienced domestic violence ?
- Seeking to build economic security and confidence?

TESTIMONIALS

“The support I received from the CTS Team was incredible. Completion of the program has given me the skills and confidence I needed to work in a fast paced office environment.”
M.M. Graduate 2017/2018

“Being at Willis College helped me gain the necessary skills as an Administrative Assistant and find employment. I also made new friendships! I now believe in myself and have the Courage to Soar.”
N.T.F. Graduate

www.minlodge.com

WHAT DOES COURAGE TO SOAR HAVE TO OFFER?

Full tuition and textbook sponsorship for the Administrative Assistant – Advanced Studies Program at Willis College
Note: Eligible applicants are required to have a source of income for living expenses and childcare in place before entering the training program.

The Courage to Soar is facilitated at Willis College’s new location at the St. Laurent Shopping Centre.

Willis College has tailored a 24-week Diploma Program in Administrative Assistant- Advanced Studies for the Courage to Soar program with an eight week job placement to practice and sharpen skills learned in program.

Creative, stimulating and cultural workshops provided to get you ready and prepared for your career. Access to academic, advocacy, referral, peer support and counseling before, during and after training.

Apply today!

Jennifer Bellaire
jbellaire@minlodge.com

COURAGE TO SOAR

Administrative Assistant – Advanced Studies Program

Minwaashin Lodge
Indigenous Women's Support Centre