

Free Evaluation Workshops

Whether you're new to evaluation or just want to reinforce and re-energize your evaluation practice, these workshops cover the basics. Each workshop is self-contained; none is a pre-requisite for the others.

To register for any of the workshops, email annalenk@spcottawa.on.ca
Pre-registration is preferred but not necessary.

Thursday, October 12

1:00 – 3:00 p.m. at the Overbrook Community Centre, 33 Quill Street

Evaluation for everyone

This is an introduction to program evaluation – why do it, who it is for, steps in an evaluation, and integrating evaluation with other processes in your organization. Everyone uses some kind of evaluative thinking in their work; we will build on that.

Presented by Anna Lenk, Evaluation Consultant, Effective Measures

Thursday, November 2

1:00 – 3:00 p.m. at the Overbrook Community Centre, 33 Quill Street

Results Chains: Connecting what you do with the change you want to see

This workshop will help you articulate the logic of how your activities lead to the changes you want to achieve. We will look at both logic models and theories of change, and how to choose which approach is best in a particular situation.

Presented by Anna Lenk, Evaluation Consultant, Effective Measures

Thursday, December 7

1:00 – 3:00 p.m. at the Overbrook Community Centre, 33 Quill Street

Reporting evaluation data to your funders: Are there ways to make it easier? More useful?

Please bring your reporting forms and questions to the workshop. We will be working with your material to talk about:

- planning for evaluation and data collection, and
- how to combine accountability to funders with evaluation that is of practical use to your organization.
