Seasonal Youth Worker Position – Summer 2018
3 Vacancies (2 9-week positions and 1 10-week position)

Emily Murphy Non-Profit Housing Corporation (EM) is a Rent-Geared-to-Income (RGI), social housing provider, with 38 stacked town homes exclusively for young single parents and their dependants. EM currently houses 38 mothers and 56 children. We are also considered a supportive housing community, offering an array of social supports including but not limited to: programs for children and youth, respite care, collective kitchens, craft nights, referrals, crisis intervention, short-term counselling and various other community development initiatives.

Overview of Seasonal Youth Worker responsibilities:

- Develop and implement programs and activities for children and youth, ages 0-17 years. Both recreational and goal oriented, these programs will heavily focus on self-esteem, anti-bullying, and healthy/active lifestyles.
- Respond to crisis situations effectively and provide referrals when appropriate.
- Build professional and trusting relationships with members of the community.
- Participate in community forums and attempt to engage community members in seasonal activities/ initiatives.

Job Qualifications:

- Enrolled as a full-time student in the previous academic year and intending to return to school on a full-time basis in the next academic year
 - Post-secondary education should reflect the nature of work at EM (i.e. Child and Youth Worker (CYW), Social Service Worker (SSW), Recreational Worker Diploma)
- Canadian citizen, permanent resident or refugee, and be legally entitled to work in Canada
- Applicants must also provide a valid Criminal Reference Check, specifically for working with the vulnerable sector
- Valid driver's licence and access to a vehicle is highly preferable
- First Aid and CPR level C certificate
- Schedule: June 18th – August 24th (10-week position) OR June 25th – August 24th (9-week positions)
- Must be available Monday – Friday, with the possibility of some weekend programming.

Hourly rate: $16.00 per hour
