

Sir John A. MacDonald - Father of Confederation or Father of Genocide? Louis Riel - Martyr or Traitor?

These are some of the questions that will be posed at Centrepointe Theatre from November 2 to 4 when Maple Leaf Theatre Productions presents Sir John A. MacDonald the Musical.

The production takes theatre goers back 150 years to the Canadian Pacific Railway Scandal, the murder of Thomas D'Arcy Mc Gee, the trial of Louis Riel, and shameful acts done to First Nations peoples at the time.

Author and Playwright Gord Carruth is Canada's most prolific writer of Canadian historical musical theatre. A National ACTRA award-winning playwright/composer, and recipient of the prestigious Critics' Commendation Award at the Edinburgh Festival, Gord's plays and musicals have been performed across Canada, the United States and Europe, on stage, radio and television.

A portion of the ticket price for these performances will go to support the work of the Caldwell Family Centre. For more information, and to purchase your tickets, please visit our website at www.CaldwellFamilyCentre.ca. By using the promo code 'Caldwell' you will ensure the Family Centre receives a portion of the ticket price.

A big thank you to Gord Carruth and Maple Leaf Theatre Productions for making the Caldwell Family Centre their charity of choice.
